

Faculty Profile

Name: Suresh K G

Designation: Assistant Professor

Teaching Areas: Macroeconomics
Managerial Economics.

Research Interests: International Trade
Trade and Environment
Applied Econometrics.

Education: Ph.D (Economics), ICFAI University, Dehradun, 2014.
M.Phil (Management), ICFAI University Tripura, 2009.
M.T.P (Management Teachers Program), I.R.S.C, Hyderabad, 2009
M.A (Economics), M.G. University, Kottayam, Kerala., 2006

Professional Experience (5 years)

1. Since March 2015: IFHE, IBS Hyderabad.
2. 2014-2015: Faculty member, IBS- Pune
3. 2009-2014: Research scholar, IBS - Dehradun (ICFAI University, Dehradun)
4. 2008-2009: Research scholar, I.R.S.C, Hyderabad
5. 2006-2008: Faculty member, Co-operative College, Thodupuzha, Kerala.

Research/Selected Publications

1. Suresh, K. G., and Aviral Kumar Tiwari., (2017): "Does International Tourism affect International Trade and Economic Growth? The Indian Experience", Empirical Economics, March 2017, pp. 1-13.
2. Dash, Aruna Kumar, Suresh KG and Aviral Kumar Tiwari., (2017): "Are Tourist Arrivals Stationary? Evidence from BRIC Countries", Current Issues in Tourism 20.3, Jan 2017, pp. 221-224.
3. Suresh, K. G., (2016): "Are Shocks to Real Output Permanent or Transitory?" Evidence from a Panel of Indian States and Union Territories", Journal Transition Studies Review, 23.1, June 2016, pp. 107-113.
4. Tiwari, Aviral Kumar, K. G. Suresh, Mohamed Aroui, and Frédéric Teulon., (2014): "Causality between Consumer Price and Producer Price: Evidence from Mexico." Economic Modelling, 36, July 2014 pp. 432-440.
5. Tiwari, Aviral Kumar, and K. G. Suresh., (2014): "Mean Reversion in Per Capita GDP of Asian Countries: Evidence from a Nonlinear Panel Unit Root Test", Journal of Economic Studies 41, No. 1, Jan 2014, pp. 2-11.